How Good the Lord Is!
Well here we are! We made it to 2026. Each new year most of us invest a considerable amount of time and thought into becoming better versions of ourselves. We vow to eat better, exercise more, along with a myriad list of goals. While I am not suggesting that you add to that long "highway to heaven" list, there is something you might consider: A heart check-up. Yes. It is important to check on your physical heart, but in this instance I'm speaking of your spiritual heart.

PASTOR'S PEN

As you know, our theme for 2026 is "Transformed Through Generosity," and one of the essential components of generosity is the spiritual condition of your heart. What does your heart look like when giving/sacrificing? One step further, what does Jesus see when He sees you giving? Does He see an act of joyful giving or a begrudging act of giving?

How does your heart check out? Make sure that your giving is not in vain, because at the end of the day, and the end of this life, Jesus will deliver the final prognosis of how you were generous to Him, Others and Yourself.

Finally, remember that generosity is not about what you have, but who you are...a child of the Most High King!

Soli Deo Gloria,

Dr. Marcus D. Davidson

FIRST FRUITS & FAITHFUL GOALS

Proverbs 3:9-10 Luke 6:38

TIP 1

BEGIN THE YEAR BY HONORING GOD WITH YOUR FIRST FRUITS-THE FIRST PORTION OF YOUR INCOME, TIME, AND ENERGY. PAIR GENEROSITY WITH INTENTIONAL GOAL SETTING SO YOUR GIVING IS PURPOSEFUL, NOT ACCIDENTAL

CHALLENGE

PRAYERFULLY SET ONE GENEROSITY GOAL FOR THE YEAR (GIVING, SERVING, OR BLESSING). WRITE IT DOWN AND ASK GOD TO HELP YOU STEWARD IT FAITHFULLY

REFLECTION

WHAT WOULD TRANSFORMATION LOOK LIKE IN MY LIFE IF GENEROSITY GUIDED MY DECISIONS THIS YEAR?
